

Hannah

Robert Downey Jr.

There's a dark problem today, as always
'Nother black thought as our arms shuffle past
    In the hallwayHannah, you know
    Hannah done sleep on my floor every day
        Simple and slow
It growsNow the clock's done ticking on my own
    Motivation
    Hannah, you kill with a look and your own
        Special brand of temptation
    HannahHannah, you know, you're doin' it
    Hannah done sleep on my floors every day
        Simple and slow
It growsAnd ... now he's stumblin' in his buckskin
    And we're, we're rootin' for a suicide
    He's a boy-king, but he's a bastard with a problem
She's a stomping beast, and a dark demanding childNo small wonder that this boy's little war toys
    Got him bombed on the carpet
        (brown-out in the townhouse)
    I believe I'd conceive to exhibit all the prowess of a paper-bag soldier
            (burn out)
        Hannah's not home
            (trippin' trippin trippin blowin' it)
    It pains me you've put your foundation so at risk
        Were you displeased?
        (breeding, breeding incompetence)
        You are dismissed
You are dismissedNow he's stumblin' in his buckskin
    And we're rootin' for a suicide
    He's a boy-king, but he's a bastard with a problem
    He's a stomping beast, and a dark demanding child
