Master of Disaster

Seether

Steal my sight and then
Fill my mind with foreign words
To keep me wanting.And speak now child
And chill my heart
With all the hurt and keep me
SufferingAll these promises
Lectures and bold faced lies
All these promises
Born of a shameless mind.Leave me to heal on my own
With those empty cool promises
You stole my dreams
Yeah all my dreams are dead inside
Please let me feel my way home
Without reason or compromise
You stole my dreams
Now all I believe is dead insideBe quick now child
And soil my bed with all your dirt
Just keep me suffering
All these promises
Lectures and bold face lies
All these promises
Born of a shameless mindLeave me to heal on my own
With those empty cool promises
You stole my dreams,
Yeah all my dreams I'm dead inside
Please let me feel my way home
Without reason or compromise
You stole my dreams
Now all I believe is dead insideDon't let me sleep
Take me back
But don't let me be comfortable
If I get too weak
Cut no slack
But don't let me be comfortableDon't let me sleep
Take me back
But don't let me be comfortableLeae me to heal on my own
With those empty cool promises
You stole my dreams,
Yeah all my dreams I'm dead inside

Please let me feel my way home
Without reason or compromise
You stole my dreams
Now all I believe in is dead insideIf you say you're alive
When you pray you're a liar
Oh you'll hate when I'm right
And you lay in the fire
