

Hell Is Thy Home

Gamma Ray

Taken where the thunder roars into the blazing light
The hand of fate is crushing down before me
The eyes of God have turned away, no angels are in sight
As I face the final chapter of our story And now I hear the millions cry
Screaming
Into oblivion you take their lives
Hell is thy home Hell is thy home, darkness thy destiny
Where you belong, no need for sympathy
The Antichrist is back again
Disguised as the savior of man
Servants of evil, breed evil Storm fill the clouds, I'll wait for the fall
Sowing the end, grace comes to fall And now you're waiting for a sign
Dreaming
The day is near when all the world is thine
Because Hell is thy home Hell is thy home, darkness thy destiny
Where you belong, no need for sympathy
Again you watch the millions die
No tears in your eyes and your followers will hail
The forces of evil won't fail In the great white hall, a monster's flagging on the fall
It's bloody war will kill us all Hell is our home, darkness thy destiny
Where we belong, no need for sympathy
Hell is thy home, darkness thy destiny
Where you belong, no need for sympathy
Sympathy, sympathy Hell is our home
Hell is our home
Hell is our home
