Driving Me Backwards

Brian Eno

Ohh
Doo doo doo
I'll be thereOh drivin' me backwards
Kids like me, gotta be crazy
Movin' me forwards
You must think that I'm lazyMeet my relations
All of them grinnin' like face packs
Such sweet inspirations
Curl me up, a flag in an icecapNow I've found a sweetheart
Treats me good, just like an armchairI try to think about nothing
Difficult, I'm most temperamental
I gave up my good living
Typical, I'm almost sentimentalAh, Luana's black reptiles
Sliding around, make chemical choices
And she responds as expected
To the only sound, hysterical voicesAnd you're, you're drivin' me backwards
Kids like me have gotta be crazyDoo doo doo
Doo doo doo
I'll be thereDoo doo doo
I'll be there
Doo doo doo
