Madden Touchdown Pass

Lie Captive

Bare feet and a cold snowy night,
All my friends hanging by my side.
I try to bond to tell you its alright,
So whys it seem youre wasting all my time?
The thought of turning my back,
On what we worked so hard to find.Foul dirt in my fingernails,
Asking the question,
Was it all worthwhile?These foolish nights with no sleep,
Stand to sour the mood.Bare feet and a cold snowy night,
All my friends hanging by my side.
Ill tell you once, this one and only time,
So listen up!It takes more than luck,
To stand up and follow through,
With all your dreams.Cuz I look up to all of those,
Who follow through,
With all their dreams.As these nights fly past,
Chances turn to failure.
Cuz these days wont last,
Were not young forever.No longer in hiding,
(The gloves come off)
Its do or die kid.Bare feet and a cold snowy night,
All my friends hanging by my side.
I tried to bond to tell you its alright,
But youve made it clear,
Youre one big waste of time.Youre one big waste of time.
Quit wasting all my time
