Give It All Away

Sidewalk Prophets

I ve held on for all this time
To something that was never mine
I ve kept Your love like there was none to spare
I ve heard the call and seen the need
But I ve been lost in apathy
When did I get to comfortable to care?
The world is crying out
So hungry for a change
Lord, let us be the ones to say
Take my heart
Lord I pray
That I can give it all away
Let me give it all away
Cause I long to feel compassion
For a world that needs Your grace
Take my heart
I want to give it all away
You have filled this empty soul
With mercy that has overflowed
The way You give to me seems so unfair
So here is my life it s all for the one
Who gave it all in the name of love
Now this hope You give to me
I ve got to share
The world is crying out
So hungry for a change
Lord, let us be the ones to say
Take my heart

Lord, I pray
That I can give it all away
Let me give it all away
Cause I long to feel compassion
For a world that needs Your grace
Take my heart
I want to give it all away
Let us be the change
Let us be Your light
Let us be Your hope

And let us give it all away
Let us be the change
Let us be Your light
Let us be Your hope
I want to give it all
So, take my heart
Lord, I pray
That I can give it all away
Cause I long to feel compassion
For a world that needs Your grace
Take my heart
Take my heart
Take my heart
I want to give
To something that was never mine
