

Get Back That Goodbye

Gloriana

It'd be easier to pour that empty glass
Back into that bottle of wine
Take that summer rain and that winter pain
And push it back into the sky
Easier to hit rewind,
Make the sun fall back into the night And unslam that front door
Give you just one more
Chance to say what you didn't say
Then find the words to make me stay
Undo what we did, refind that first kiss
And turn back time
You can get back that goodbye It'd be easier to walk away
And let it go and find someone new Easy as it seems, it seems
It's harder to forget about you
Easier to move on, for good
Then I still hold on
And wish I could And unslam that front door
Give you just one more
Chance to say what you didn't say
Then find the words to make me stay
Undo what we did, refind that first kiss
And turn back time
You can get back that goodbye It's easier to break apart
Than it is to unbreak hearts And unslam that front door
Give you just one more
Chance to say what you didn't say
Then find the words to make me stay
Undo what we did, refind that first kiss
And turn back time
You can get back that goodbye
