

Dreams

All Saints

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Here I go again, got a broken heart
This time I'll get stronger
No grieving till the break of dawn
Ain't falling easily, move over Dreams are dreams will alas come true
Skies will clear leaving me bright and blue
I will raise my glass to my heart and say
"Here's to tomorrow, not yesterday" Here's not to dreams that don't come true
Here's not to what was me and you
Here's not to all the days gone by
And to the truth that lived a lie Dreams are dreams will alas come true
Skies will clear leaving me bright and blue
I will raise my glass to my heart and say
"Here's to tomorrow, not yesterday" Dreams are dreams will alas come true
Skies will clear leaving me bright and blue
I will raise my glass to my heart and say
"Here's to tomorrow, not yesterday" Dreams are dreams will alas come true
Skies will clear leaving me bright and blue
I will raise my glass to my heart and say
"Here's to tomorrow" My words are a whisper, in silence I shall
No Hallmark card can spell it out
Deep down inside, you know I care
There's nothing to say 'bout the love we shared Dreams are dreams will alas come true
Skies will clear leaving me bright and blue
I will raise my glass to my heart and say
"Here's to tomorrow, not yesterday" Dreams are dreams will alas come true
Skies will clear leaving me bright and blue
I will raise my glass to my heart and say
"Here's to tomorrow, not yesterday" Dreams are dreams will alas come true
Skies will clear leaving me bright and blue
I will raise my glass to my heart and say
"Here's to tomorrow, not yesterday"
