

The War Drags On

Donovan

Let me tell you the story of a soldier named Dan
Went out to fight the good fight in South Vietnam
Went out to fight for peace, liberty and all Went out to fight for equality, hope, let's go And the war drags on Found himself involved in a sea of blood and bones
Millions without faces, without hope and without homes
And the guns they grew louder as they made dust out of bones
That the flesh had long since left just as the people left their homes And the war drags on They're just there to try and make the people free
But the way that they're doin' it, it don't seem like that to me
Just more blood letting and misery and tears
That this poor country's known for the last twenty years And the war drags on Last night, poor Dan had a nightmare it seems
One kept occurin' and reoccurin' in his dreams
Cities full of people burnin', screamin', shoutin' loud
And right there overhead, a great orange mushroom cloud And there's no more war
For there's no, no more world
And the tears come streaming down
Yes, I lie crying on the ground
