

Sun to Me

Faithless

So in future lifetimes
It's a certainty
That we'll again
Fit together perfectly
So in, in future lifetimes
It's a certainty
That we'll again
Fit together perfectly
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
I stumbled into you accidentally
And yet feels as though you were sent to me
That we were meant to be together
And grow with each other
Through the centuries
If my body was your mirror
You'd be able to see exactly
What it is about you
That I'm addicted to Helplessly you distract me
Like a mountain view
Of rivers crashing into the sea
Strangely
You all seem familiar to me
Would so, love tie us together
Through eternity
So in future lifetimes
It's a certainty
We will again
Fit together perfectly
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
So in future lifetimes
It's a certainty
We will again
Fit together perfectly
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
If my body was your mirror
You'd be able to see exactly
What it is about you that makes me shiver
You give me a soul fever
And I achieve a new level of grace
So in future lifetimes
It's a certainty
We will again
Fit together perfectly
Perfectly, perfectly
Perfectly, perfectly

Perfectly You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me We do it so fervently
We do it so fervently
With your urgency
We do it so fervently You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
