Shadow Song

Screaming Trees

Can't get back, can't remind you
We're closer now than I would want to be
They think it's easy if you just imagine
Before the dust will trip you up againChoose the way that you want to go now
I'll meet you there, meet you there somehow
We leave behind all this worried puzzle
Wake from a dream, I knew you'd be there stillDon't you step into the shadows
Into a place where nobody goes
Through a gate where everything flows
With the fallen shadowsDown the street lined with dirt and plastic
When you appeared I just happened to be
In the midst of another nightmare
Taking me back just like I knew it wouldDon't you step into the shadows
There's a place where nobody goes
Through a gate where everything flows
With the fallen shadowsIn the dark there's no-one with me
There's no stars to warm my skin
I'd light a match if I could hold one
It's coming over me again
It's coming over me again, yeahLet this feeling go on past us
Let this cage turn into rust
So many pieces and so many people
You'll never figure out just who I was thenDon't you step into the shadows
Into a place where nobody goes
Through a gate where everything flows
With the fallen shadows

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/