

A Matter of When

Kevin Fowler

Made of with a light bill that hasn't been paid
And I've had a month or one of those days
And I've heard ya gotta take the good with the bad
Seems like the bad times are all that I've had Oh but lately I've been feelin' a change in the wind
Like one chapter's closin' and another begins
Oh, my luck is bound to turn around, it'll happen again
I know it's all just a matter of when The rain's lettin' up the suns on its way
My half empty cup is half full today
And I've learned the tide turns just around the bend
Off in the distance I see my ship comin' in Oh but lately I've been feelin' a change in the wind
Like one chapter's closin' and another begins
I know it's all just a matter of when
