

Carried Away

Moor Hound

I'll throw away your trust
To court another out of lust
What you see is just a shield
The man inside will be revealed
Your power inebriates the mind
Makes a tired man's eyes blind
Just cut a hole in my brain
Let desire be carried away
How cruel, how generous
This void inside of us
Some are filled, some minds roam still
Scream into your pillow
I don't need much
I'm just curious
