

Alone Again

Gilbert O'Sullivan

In a little while from now
If I'm not feeling any less sour
I promised myself to treat myself
And visit a nearby tower And climbing to the top
Will throw myself off
In an effort to make it clear to who
Ever what it's like when you're shattered Left standing in the lurch, at a church
Where people are saying
My God that's tough, she stood him up
No point in us remaining May as well go home
As I did on my own
Alone again, naturally To think that only yesterday
I was cheerful, bright and gay
Looking forward to, but who wouldn't do
The role I was about to play But as if to knock me down
Reality came around
And without so much as a mere touch
Cut me into little pieces Leaving me to doubt
All about God and His mercy
For if He really does exist
Why did He desert me In my hour of need?
I truly am indeed
Alone again, naturally It seems to me that
There are more hearts
Broken in the world
That can't be mended Left unattended
What do we do? What do we do? Now looking back over the years
And what ever else that appears
I remember I cried when my father died
Never wishing to have cried the tears And at sixty five years old
My mother, God rest her soul
Couldn't understand, why the only man
She had ever loved had been taken Leaving her to start with a heart
So badly broken
Despite encouragement from me
No words were ever spoken And when she passed away
I cried and cried all day
Alone again, naturally
Alone again, naturally
