

Technicolor

Sainte

Fell into you like the sea
You broke my fall
And you pulled me deep
I think that you should know this uncertainty
Has got me restless

Counting myself to sleepI'm counting one of the reasons to adore you
Three words on my lips for you onlyPlease don't wake me up

I'm dreaming in technicolor
Feel your heart beating
the rhythm is like no other
And when the skies are grey
We'll paint the night together
Please don't wake me up

We're dreaming in technicolorKeep my eyes closed just to see
How long you'll go
Acting like you're asleep

A constant reminder I'll never need

A heart that's weightless if you're still here with meI'm counting one of the reasons to adore you
Three words on my lips for you onlyPlease don't wake me up

I'm dreaming in technicolor
Feel your heart beating
The rhythm is like no other
And when the skies are grey
We'll paint the night together
Please don't wake me up

We're dreaming in technicolorHow do I know I'm real at all?
You're the only thing that makes me feel alive
Why would I wanna wake up at all?

Why I still feel the same?I'm counting one of the reasons to adore you
Three words on my lips for you onlyPlease don't wake me up

I'm dreaming in technicolor
Feel your heart beating
The rhythm is like no other
And when the skies are grey
We'll paint the night together
Please don't wake me up
We're dreaming in technicolor
