

Crumble

Dinosaur Jr.

I got nothing where I've been
Will you bring me there again?
No one ever understands
You won't change to help, no I got lost inside a lie
Every smile, you made it die
I'm not real and you know why
Can I run again some more, more? Can I be there all the time?
Can I stop the wondering why?
Will I crumble, will I fly?
And I've got to make you Will I be in time to see?
Will it all roll over me?
Can I fake it just to be?
You know I can't take you on, on Built a picture yesterday
Built a picture of a moment
My love, my love
My love, my love You have time for me again
But you flatten me instead
Try to be the little things you said
Like I almost had it But I don't ever belong
And I'm sweating, trying to stall
Till I think I heard a call
[Incomprehensible] laughing on and on
On and on, on and on, on and on Built a picture yesterday
Built a picture of a moment
My love, my love
My love, my love
