State of Mind

Raul MidÃ³n

Used to sit and worry about the future
Worrying about the future don't change the past
Used to think that tomorrow would be better
But now I know that I'm doing the best I can
I'm just a man trying to find the reasons why I stand
Took some time to realize that I am what I am
And I want to be rich, I want to be happy
And live inside a love that shines bright enough to last a lifetime
I want to be rich more than a fantasy
Ride the winds and climb, cause it's all a state of mind

Wake up in the morning and I turn the pages
Don't understand what's going down
Everybody's acting so outrageous
It's gonna take a lot of love to turn things around
I'm just a man trying to find the reasons why I stand
Took some time to realize that I am what I am
And I want to be rich, I want to be happy
And live inside a love that shines bright enough to last a lifetime
I want to be rich, more than a fantasy
Ride the winds and climb cause it's all a state of mind

Hear people talk about going to heaven
Grab a little bit of heaven right here on earth
Troubled times lead to healing times
I was sad now I'm feeling fine
It's the taking and the giving that makes this life worth living,
Makes this life worth living
I want to be rich, I want to be happy
And live inside a love that shines bright enough to last a lifetime
I want to be rich, more than a fantasy
Ride the winds and fly,
Spread your wings and fly
Cause its all a state of mind

Ride the winds and climb,
Spread your wings and fly
Cause its all a state of mind
