

Confession

Cold

Everybody loves stars
Everyone fell
Into her world
She made hereWhere everybody rates love
But I don't care
'Cause it's her world
She made meYou think you're half as good as me
The only thing you'll ever be
Is just a way for me to bleed
On this stageEverybody loves stars
Everyone fell
Into her world
She made hereWhere innocence is taken
But I don't care
'Cause it's her world
She made meYou think you're half as good as me
The only thing you'll ever be
Is just a way for me to bleed
On this stageYou think you're half as good as me
The only thing you'll ever be
Is just a way for me to bleed
On this stageNow she's old
She's been blessed
Take a bow
And confessNow she's old
She's been blessed
Take a bow
And confessShe threw it all away
My angel died that day
No one came
No one caredShe threw it all away
My angel died that day
No one came
No one caredYou think you're half as good as me
The only thing you'll ever be
Is just a way for me to bleed
On this stageYou think you're half as good as me
The only thing you'll ever be
Is just a way for me to bleed

On this stage You think you're half as good as me
The only thing you'll ever be
Is just a way for me to bleed
On this stage
