

Waiting For Me

Taylor Carson

Waiting for me

My first worst memory was here and then you were gone

Lay a stone, dark clothes, there goes my innocence
I feel so alone.

Seasons pass but at last new new life grows on the ground
You can't talk to a memory and memories don't always stay around
I miss the sound of your voice right now

I've got an old friend who will be there waiting for me
When I make it to the end, I know they'll be there waiting for me
To light a candle that leads the way, have some funny things to say
I know you'll be there, waiting for me.

Now I am a full grown man with worries of my own
Terrified that I might fail, I'm still scared to be alone.
It comforts me to know, that's!

I've got an old friend who will be there waiting for me
When I make it to the end, I know they'll be there waiting for me
To light a candle that leads the way, have some funny things to say
I know you'll be there, waiting for me.

Why, why, why do some people go before their time, time, time?
Maybe light one in the darkness, I was blind, blind, blind.
One day friend I'll once again be by your side

I've got an old friend who will be there waiting for me
When I make it to the end, I know they'll be there waiting for me
I know, you'll be there, be there,
I've got an old friend who will be there waiting for me
When I make it to the end, I know they'll be there waiting for me
To light a candle that leads the way, have some funny things to say
I know you'll be there, always with me.

I've got an old friend who will be there waiting for me
When I make it to the end, I know they'll be there waiting for me
To light a candle that leads the way, have some funny things to say
I know you'll be there, waiting for me.
