Patiently Waiting (X)

Jimmy Gnecco

Another stone I'm kicking in my head Another bone that's breaking in my back let it go, let it goNow I don't like seeing what I am The more I try the less I understand where to go, where to go where to go, where to goBut, I'm patiently waiting, patiently waiting
The sands of time run down
The things we love we live without
And after everything you do GoneAnd now I don't mind seeing what I am
I'm falling down the past is in my hands
I let it go, I let it go, I let it go
I let it go, I let it go, I let it go
I let it go, I let it go
