Gak 2

Finch

Spark of sulfur ignites,
The remnants of tonight,
Space still echoes,
The solitude of night,What you're after may not,
Shine so bright,
Midnight concealing,
All of these lies,Blood from beneath the skin,
It's just a voice calling,Don't wanna hear it, don't wanna make a scene,
If you catch me now then I'll see you in hell,If you make amends, will you make it back?
And if you have the time, will you crack a smile?This is only a test,
To prove your innocence,
Take the pill that you don't lie, to satisfy,
Following everything gonna die,He pushed his way into the space between her broken self,
Now he just stands here waiting, waiting,Blood from beneath the skin,
It's just a voice calling,Don't wanna hear it, don't wanna make a scene,
If you catch me now I'm crawling back from hell,If you make amends, will you make it back?
And if you have the time, will you crack a smile?
