

As Damaged as Me

Hatebreed

You knew just where to touch
Your words always cut
So much darker than lust
We both longed for trust So much more than just hate
My hands are here to suffocate
So deep I penetrate When you're as damaged as me
To punish yourself is to love
When you're as damaged as me
You relish in the pain of another We were destined to fuck
You knew how hard to touch
We were destined to fuck each other We were destined to fuck
Your words always cut
We were destined to fuck each other over When you're as damaged as me
Your eyes say what we know
And when you're damaged like me
You like hands upon your throat When you're as damaged as me
You know you're too fucked for words
And when you're damaged like me
You take what you don't deserve
Inflict the damage You take what you don't deserve
What you don't deserve
You take what you don't deserve
You don't deserve
You take what you don't deserve Now you're too fucked for words
You were too fucked for words
Now you're just fucked
You were too fucked for words
Now you're just fucked
You're fucked You were too fucked for words
Now you're just fucked
You're fucked
