Save Me from My Curse (Live In Leipzig 2012)

Rabia Sorda

Talk to me, you said, whats in your head?
Cant you see, I said, that Im alright.
Talk to me, you said, whats in your head?
Just nothing got better the way you said.
Cant you see, I said, that Im alright,
but suddenly life changed in just a blink.Dont try to fix it, its my own life,
no more words to say, Ive got no time.
Dont try to save me from my course.
Dont try to fix others mistakes,
theres nothing you can do anyways.
Dont try to save me from my course.Look at me, you said, and so I did.
Walk away, I said, just give it up.
Look at me, you said, and so I did,
theres no point in saying the same again.
Walk away, I said, just give it up,
but you kept on talking with eyes wide shut.Everyones gone crazy, look who I am.
