

Rock & Roll People

Johnny Winter

Two, three, four! Yeah, we're rock and roll people, born to pick the news
Yeah, we're rock and roll people
I just couldn't change it if I would choose to Don't tell me where your head is, man
I can see your shinin' shoes
Don't play the Virgin Mary
We all know you've been screwed Rock and roll people, born to be the news
Yeah, we're rock and roll people
I just couldn't change it if I would choose to My father was a mother
My mother was a son
Don't play the dog for dinner
We all been twenty-one We're rock and roll people, born to be the news
Yeah, we're rock and roll people
I just couldn't change it if I would choose to Don't ask me what the time is
Or how much space I need
Don't play the Mona Lisa
You'll know where she's been Well, rock and roll people, born to be the news
Yeah, we're rock and roll people
I just couldn't change it if I would choose to Sweet, sweet rock and roll
Sweet, sweet rock and roll
Sweet, sweet rock and roll
Sweet, sweet rock and roll Sweet, sweet rock and roll
Rock, rock, rock and roll
Rock, rock, rock and roll
Rock, rock, rock and roll
Uh huh, uh Hey! Two, three, four! We're the rock and roll people, born to pick the news
Yeah, we're rock and roll people
I just couldn't change it if I would choose to Don't ask me where your head is, man
I can see your shinin' shoes
Don't play the Virgin Mary
We all know you've been screwed Well, rock and roll people, born to pick the news
Yeah, we're rock and roll people
I just couldn't change it if I would choose to Sweet, sweet rock and roll
Sweet, sweet rock and roll
Sweet, sweet rock and roll
Sweet, sweet rock and roll Sweet, sweet rock and roll
Sweet, sweet rock and roll
Sweet, sweet Okay!

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>