Thank You

Chris Brown

Man, y'all don't know what y'all do for me
You see
Without y'all none of this would matter
I mean none of it
So I say thank you, listenOut the gate I got it started alright
Daddy told me
You ain't gotta beat around the bush
(Fa sho)
Deep inside I feel you, Lord
(Number 1)I come this far by faith
Bless me with the voice
And gave me that extra push
(Push)
And dear momma
(I love you, momma)For the times I acted foolish
You popped me with the rulers
I didn't understand
(No)
But I do now
(Now)

You're more than just a friend
With me to the end
