

Red Neck Reel

16 Horsepower

Everybody knows my business in this town
Lips are loose the whole way 'round
Where I go I leave a trail
Hell to Heaven don't never fail
Hell to Heaven don't never fail Everybody knows my movement in this town
(You left your crown)
I chase my tail, yea, I'm a fuckin' clown
(Oh yeah)
But to you I dare not speak
My words to you would be worthless and weak
My words to you would be worthless and weak
Get it on Yeah, but don't you take no pleasure
I ain't yet kicked the pail After my, just after evening
Can be on the floor
Everybody all day I guess I see you boys later
I saw you see me when I'm down
An my guilty head you we're aimin'
See me in your eyes and I am dead
See me in your eyes and I am dead But don't you take no pleasure
I ain't yet kicked the pail
