Shed A Tear

Chester See

Here it comes, can't you see, that were tough guys and we have feelings.Take my hands, close your eyes, with you right here I'mma shed a tear and cry. Don't be afraid to cry(cry). You could still be a manly guy(guy). Just cry. Don't be afraid to cry(cry), let it free fall from your eyes. Yeah lets go.Wake up see a sunrise(rise). Let it free fall from your eyes. Start my day and I read a sonnet. Got,got a soft cheek with a tear on it. (Awe) Step out and the skies are clear (clear). I'm a man and I have no fear (no fear).
Take a step and I land in crap (awe crap). I let it out, no holding back.Here it comes, can't you see, that were tough guys and we have feelings. Take my hands, close your eyes, with you right here I'mma shed a tear and cry.Don't be afraid to cry(cry). You could still be a manly guy(guy). Just cry. Don't be afraid to cry(cry), let it free fall from your eyes.Baby we can go out on a first date. But you come and pick me up half and hour late. Girl I'm not gonna lie, that you almost made me cry, but I'm a masculine guy I'll be okay. Yeah, your place, Toy Story 3, the greatest all time kids movie. But I forgot, Andy leaves Woody, and now the tears are coming right back over me.Here it comes, can't you see, that were tough guys and we have feelings.Take my hands, close your eyes, with you right here I'mma shed a tear and cry. Don't be afraid to cry(cry). You could still be a manly guy(guy). Just cry. Don't be afraid to cry(cry), let it free fall from your eyes.
