

Beautiful

Tweet

My eyes has never seen someone so beautiful
So much charm, so much class
You're the first thought of each day So appealing you are, you move through me
Such a natural feeling
And oh, please don't take it away I can get caught up when I see you
You're so beautiful
I can get caught up when I see you
You're so beautiful I have received a love that's so divine
So innocent and so pure
You make each moment stand still And you took care of my heart ever so gently
I can never repay you, no
Your desires, I'm here to fulfill, yeah I can get caught up when I see you
You're so beautiful
I can get caught up when I see you
You're so beautiful, oh You, you are, you
You're more than a dream come true
You, you are, you
Beautiful, beautiful I can get caught up when I see you
You're so beautiful
I can get caught up when I see you
You're so beautiful I can get caught up when I see you
You're so beautiful
I can get caught up when I see you
You're so beautiful So caught up, I can get caught up
Oh no, ooh
