Let Me Try

Hope Partlow

I know you're afraid, I'll lose Jesus
And I'll choose all the wrong kind of friends
But I've gotta find my own reasons for living
But I can believe it in the end
If I crawl on my knees through the heartache
Of the mess that I've made all alone
Don't come around here to rescue me too soon
I need to get through on my own
Let me fall just one time
'Cause I'm tryin' to learn how to fly
Let me make my own mistakes
'Cause it's hope that I'm hopin' to find
Let me try, let me try, let me try
If I lay in the arms of a stranger
And I dance too close to the ledge
Don't be afraid it's because I don't love you
I just need to see life at the edge
Let me fall just one time
'Cause I'm tryin' to learn how to fly
Let me cry once or twice
'Cause freedom, it comes at a price
Let me try, let me try, let me try
You gave me beautiful wings that are strong
Just believe now that I can fly
All of the love that you gave me
I'll carry it with me and keep it alive, keep it alive
Oh, let me fall just one time
'Cause I'm tryin' to learn how to fly
Let me make my own mistakes
'Cause it's hope that I'm hopin', I'm hopin' to find
Let me try, oh, let me try
Oh, oh, let me try
Oh, let me try
Ohh, ohh
Oh, let me try, ohh
Let me try, try
Let me try, try
Let me try, try
Let me try, try

Let me try
