

Ranchin' In the Evenin'

Waylon Jennings

Mother, tell me mother,
Where has my daddy gone
And why is my daddy always leavin'?
Hush, my child and go to sleep
He's workin' with the cows and sheep
Daddy does his ranchin' in the evenin'

Mother, tell me mother,
Why he took his gun along
For I know 'tis not the gaming season.
Hush my child and go to sleep
Tis bigger game your daddy seeks
For daddy does his hunting in the evenin'

Mother, oh dear mother,
I see him comin' round
And seven bonnie thoroughbreds he's leadin'
Hush my child and go to sleep
And of these things do never speak
Daddy makes his liv' in the evenin'

Mother, tell me mother,
Is that my daddy's voice
Callin to you so early in the dawnin'?
Hush my child and go to sleep
'Tis not the time to bother me
For daddy does his lovin' in the morning
