

Shades of Grey

Symphony X

Seasons changing now - summer's come and I'll be on my own just bear another day I'll try, just try another way I have wondered - if I can turn back hands of time but I really don't want you to stay
I don't know why my heart keeps calling, I have my reasons to keep from falling
then cast me into shades of gray Life's an endless stage - wisdom comes with age, can't you see what mindless games we play (So the end)
So the end is near - captured by the spirit in the wind you keep calling out to me I'll weep it through I'll find my way
I don't know why my heart keeps calling, I have my reasons to keep from falling
but I really don't want you to stay [Solo] then cast me into shades of gray When the curtain falls - I'll hold my head up high and curse you all such vicious games we play I don't know why my heart keeps calling, but I really don't want you to stay I have my reasons to keep from falling
then cast me into shades of gray
I don't know why my heart keeps calling, but I really don't want you to stay then cast me into shades of gray I have my reasons to keep from falling
