Goodbye California

Jana Kramer

Ten days of L.A. palm trees
I loved that sunshine on me
Can?t beat that perfect blue sky, no
But goodbye Hollywood, hey
I?m leaving on a jet plane
To see my baby tonight, oh
Red red roses in his hands
So glad to be back home
Home sweet home
I like boots, you, your drunk tattoo
Drivin? in the country when the daffodils bloom
I like your mustang, your sexy hot twang
Country fried chicken is a beautiful thing
Oh all I wanna do is hug and hold ya?
Hello to love and so goodbye California
I love the southern moonlight
I love them lemon moon pies
I love the sweet cherry wine, oh
I like the tiny town we?re in Love it when the preacher says am en Love me a gentle southern man
West coast love you

Oh but I?m so glad to be back home
Home sweet home
I like boots, you, your drunk tattoo
Drivin? in the country when the daffodils bloom
I like your mustang, your sexy hot twang
Country fried chicken is a beautiful thing
Oh all I wanna do is hug and hold ya?
Hello to love and so goodbye California
Girls in bikinis on beaches
But we have sweet Georgia peaches
I love the way the country feels
And I hate four-inch heels
I like boots, you, your drunk tattoo
Drivin? in the country when the daffodils bloom
I like your mustang, your sexy hot twang
Country fried chicken is a beautiful thing

Oh all I wanna do is hug and hold ya?
Hello to love and so goodbye
I like boots, you, your drunk tattoo
Drivin? in the country when the daffodils bloom
I like your mustang, your sexy hot twang
Country fried chicken is a beautiful thing
Oh all I wanna do is hug and hold ya?
Hello to love and so goodbye to California
