Magic

Ladyhawke

You came to my show
And I saw you in the crowd.
I didn't know your name.
I didn't know your name.I asked all my friends who you were
And your story.
They told me the same.
They told me the same.I've left my heart to you but it's not fair,
'Cause you're taking me for granted, baby.
I made a start with you but it's not fair,
'Cause you're over the Atlantic, baby.One journey for you but it's worth it.
One life here with me and it's magic.
One journey for you but it's worth it.
One life here with me and it's magic.You stayed at my head where I saw you all the time
I didn't think you'd care, I didn't think you'd care.
I felt you all day with a mouth full of attitude,
And you stole me away, you stole me awayI've left my heart to you but it's not fair,
'Cause you're taking me for granted, baby.
I made a start with you but it's not fair,
'Cause you're over the Atlantic, babyOne journey for you but it's worth it.
One life here with me and it's magic.
One journey for you but it's worth it.
One life here with me and it's magic.'Cause you're over the Atlantic, baby.
'Cause you're taking me for granted, baby.
'Cause you're over the Atlantic, baby.One journey for you but it's worth it.
One life here with me and it's magic.
One journey for you but it's worth it.
One life here with me and it's magic.One journey for you but it's worth it.
One life here with me and it's magic.
One journey for you but it's worth it.
One life here with me and it's magic.One journey for you but it's worth it.
One life here with me and it's magic.
One journey for you but it's worth it.
One life here with me and it's magic.
