

Strong Ones (feat. Cimo Fränkel)

Armin van Buuren

I've been calling
I've got endless reasons, Wait now, hold on,
Say you still believe we learn, straight through fire but we can do better we can do better
sing for lost time cause we can do better
cause all that we need is a second to hold on cause we are the strong ones all that we need is the reason to fight on cause we are the strong ones yeah, we are the strong ones, yeah we are the strong ones we are the strong ones, yeah we are the strong ones we are the strong ones don't think, don't speak let's just sit in silence every hard week, makes it feel just like we run straight through fire but we can do better
we can do better
cause all that we need is a second to hold on
all that we need is a reason to fight on cause we are the strong ones we are the strong ones, we are the strong ones it's a reason to fight on cause we are the strong ones we are the strong ones, we are the strong ones
