Like U Crazy

Mates of State

I like you crazy(x3)
You crazy(x2)I like you crazy(x3)
You crazy(x2)I'm suffering lonely ones too
And I can't resist sending this on a whim
There's a compulsion to mend
Write on the wall, my loudest pen goesI can't wait to say all the things you can't see
All the things that make you better
'Cause I can say all the things you can't see
All the things that make youI like you crazy(x3)
You crazy(x2)I like you crazy(x3)
You crazy(x2)Hot summers repeating
Bubs noticing bees in the air
Won't get off this rail
Then great hope remains honestlyObserving the critic
I knew you had plenty to say
I could not resist watching you with himI can't wait to say all the things you can't see
All the things that make you better
'Cause I can say all the things you can't see
All the things that make youI like you crazy(x3)
You crazy(x2)I like you crazy(x3)
You crazy(x2)I like you crazy(x3)
You crazy(x2)I like you crazy(x3)
You crazy(x2)
