Fever Dreams

Aviator

Fever dreams
Can only haunt you
'Til the fever breaks
They can only haunt you
'Til the fever breaks
They can only haunt you
'Til the fever breaks
They can only haunt you
'Neath your skin and your games
You're alone
But you're so contagious
Tell me, what am I to do?
When a fire and a fever rages
And I have caught it too
So who's to blame?
Fever dreams
They can only haunt you
'Til the fever breaks
They can only haunt you
I've had enough of those moves
I've had enough of those moves

You get everything away
I've lost all I can
Lost to your skill and your games
But you're so contagious
So contagious
Fever dreams
Can only haunt you
'Til the fever breaks
They can only haunt you
'Til the fever breaks
They can only haunt you
'Til the fever breaks
They can only haunt you
But you're so contagious
Tell me, what am I to do?
When a fire and a fever rages
And I have caught it too

So who's to blame
For who gets burned
For holding you?
