Tornado

Vanessa Littrell

Tornado came down and she sat on the porch
She said Iâ€™ve been watchinâ€™ you
Out of the corner of my eye
She said Iâ€™m impressed with the way you spin around
But, tell me girl, are you for real

Donâ€™t look so surprised, I am here in your eyes
I can see, that you have been short of breath
I wonâ€™t criticize you, or tell you what to do
But honestly, how can you survive?

chorus
Youâ€™ve got to save yourself for the storms up ahead
You donâ€™t know what lies for you up around the bend
Youâ€™ve got to pace yourself, you canâ€™t burn out now
Youâ€™ve got a whole life ahead that is waiting for you

The wind blows in circles and never slows down
At least thatâ€™s what youâ€™d have us all believe
The choices you make are your own destiny
You can only blame yourself on you

chorus

Tornado got up and she spat on the ground
I know you, you think youâ€™ve got it figured out
Iâ€™ll shake you, Iâ€™ll rattle you, Iâ€™ll blow your house down
But I cannot change who you are

chorus
