Close Your Eyes

No-Man

his hands were hard,
your face was soft.
he kissed your heavy head
and then you lost your strength.now, nothing shows.
you're empty now.
he kissed your heavy head
and then you lost it.[chorus:]
close your eyes to the world, close your eyes.
dive in deep for the pearl.you shine your torch
into the sky.
you watch the darkness grow,
it makes you want to cry.[chorus x2]his hands were hard,
your face was soft.
he kissed your heavy head
and then you lost your strength.you break like a child,
like a child you break,
you swim alonelike a child.
