Corrupted

Mcfly

Crashing into walls, banging on your door
So why'd you let me in?
Falling through the floor, diving in too deep
Underneath your skin
So good you've got to abuse it, so fast that sometimes you lose it
It chews you up when you feed it but everyone needs to eat
Am I too much for you 'cause you're too much for me?
Still wanna be corrupted
Let's convince ourselves it's all under control
A stone that we can break but is this what we want?
'Cause we might miss the hate
I know it feels so good to make the same mistake
Mistake, mistake, mistake, mistake, mistake
So good you've got to abuse it, so fast that sometimes you lose it
It chews you up when you feed it but everyone needs to eat
Am I too much for you 'cause you're too much for me?
Still wanna be corrupted
Do you remember how it started?
The fairytale got twisted and decayed
The innocence has all been broken
How did we get this way?
So good you got to abuse it, so fast that sometimes you lose it
It chews you up when you feed it but everyone needs to eat
So good you got to abuse it, so fast that sometimes you lose it
It chews you up when you feed it but everyone needs to eat
Am I too much for you 'cause you're too much for me?
Still wanna be and I still wanna be corrupted
