Lost

Agnostic Front

Yah weh promised a conquered land, domination over
Life man against man mother earth came to Conflict with patriarchal powers and eyes lit up
With hierarchy fed desires the spirit
Within quickly became lost in search of glory and Power the rules of war were taughtThe dogs, run wild, parting souls from lives bombs
Fragment, the earth, leaving wounds in her sideThe roots of perversion so deeply planted man has Become evil peace and freedom tainted leaders ask
Their people to dig their graves deeper no spirit
Of their own they took heed of their keepersMan finds himself trapped in aggression he knows
No other life but that of oppression
