Through Your Eyes

Evans Blue

I want what's left of us, just hurry up
And throw me the bones you bleed
I'm not the one who forgot on second thought
I'm leaving this life, you scream
Nobody knows me, nobody will
Nobody knows this pain I feel
Taken for insult, taken to heal
Or taken away
We're all like you, we've all seen
Through your eyes with our lives
It's not easy to go through, believe me
It's alright, we're all alike
Do you want to know
What you can't allow
Inside and out of hope?
And still you scream
Nobody knows me, nobody will

Nobody knows this pain I feel
Taken for insult, taken to heal
Or taken away
We're all like you, we've all seen
Through your eyes with our lives
It's not easy to go through, believe me
It's alright, we're all alike
Do you wanna know
What you can't allow
Inside and out of hope?
Taken for insult, taken to heal
Or taken away
We're all like you, we've all seen
Through your eyes with our lives
It's not easy to go through, believe me
It's alright, we're all alike
