Stop the World

Goo Goo Dolls

You need someone to hold you
You need somethin' that you ain't been gettin'
Yeah I could be the one
To tell you what to do but it don't mean nothin'
And you're holdin' on forever
But that somethin' just ain't true
I'm just like youAnd I know it's what I'd do
Here I go
'Cause I could stop the world 'cause I love you
I could stop the world and I don't want to
I could stop the world and I won't
'Cause it ain't enoughYou had another bad day
You let me know that you just can't take it
I've given up on you
You live in truth and I know I can't fake it
'Cause the stars you see
Are on a dirty sidewalk
And they ain't for wishin' new
If they don't come trueAnd I know it's what I'd do
Here I go
'Cause I could stop the world 'cause I love you
I could stop the world and I don't want to
I could stop the world and I won't
'Cause it ain't enoughI'm not too young for the world
I'm not too young for the world
And I can't change for the world
(I don't need to stop the world)
'Cause I don't care for the world
I'm not too young for the world
(I don't need to stop the world)
And I don't care for the world
It don't make sense the world
