Beautiful Surprise

Nate Sallie

Maybe no one ever told you
Was anybody there to hold you
And I can see youve lost your confidence
But from where I stand, youre perfect
And that makes no senseI tell you youre amazing
And I tell you that youre fine
But you just look at me and say Im blindIf you could see yourself through my eyes
Oh, baby, if you only knew what you have inside
If you could look beyond the illusions in your mind
Baby, you would find a beautiful surpriseYouve got a special way about you
Dont ever let nobody doubt you
You are so incredible and I want you to know
That its time to see youre wonderful and just let goYeah, Ill tell you youre amazing
And Ill tell you that youre fine
Dont you know that youre one of a kind, yeahIf you could see yourself through my eyes
Oh, baby, if you only knew what you have inside
If you could look beyond the illusions in your mind
Baby, you would find a beautiful surpriseIll remind you who you are Cause in my eyes you are a star
There is nothing quite as bright
As when youre shiningUnderneath those foolish lies
Theres a beautiful surpriseIf you could see yourself through my eyes
Oh, baby, if you only knew what you have inside
If you could look beyond the illusions in your mind
Baby, you would find a beautiful surpriseIf you could see yourself through my eyes
Oh, baby, if you only knew what you have inside
If you could look beyond the illusions in your mind
Baby, you would find a beautiful surpriseA beautiful surprise, yeah
A beautiful surprise
A beautiful surprise
