

Money in My Pocket

Juliette and the Licks

Money in my pocket
Setting fire to a second rate dream
Cashing a check in
You've gotta change the dead red like a mean green
A crime less time and I climb and you say
Everybody get in line, pay the toll box
Tell me what it costs, now?
The world's gone crazy but I've got my friends
Nothing's gonna see me now
This is where the heartbreak ends and begins
What's that smell?
Skinny never put it so well, eye and tail
Betty blue eyes on me the just and cause and swell
The long arm of the law is on my back
Giving me a heart attack, cashing a check in
The world's gone crazy but I've got my friends
Nothing's gonna see me now
This is where the heartbreak ends and begins
The worlds gone crazy but I've got my friends
Nothing's gonna see me now
This is where the heartbreak ends and begins
Money in my pocket
You're setting fire to a second rate dream
Cashing a check in
You've gotta change the dead red like a mean green
You know my lips are alive and can't lose your heart
So open up your damn mind
The worlds gone crazy but I've got my friends
Nothing's gonna see me now
This is where the heartbreak ends and begins
The worlds gone crazy but I've got my friends
Nothing's gonna see me now
This is where the heartbreak ends and begins
