Blast Doors

Everything Everything

You can tell the past boy, I can tell the future.
Give me a lobotomy and I can be your tutor.
Open up the blast doors then we can be neutered.
I can smell your fingerprints all over my computer.So give me all that black, brown, sticky sugar water.
Swing you by your neck and man now this can be your future.
Something very strange about your picture in the mirror,
When you move it doesn't move, now how could that be weirder?Just keep on rubbernecking yeah whatever feels familiar,
I can send my brain on a holiday forever.
You can fire a rocket at a rocket it's the future.
If you weren't already dead I wouldn't have to school you.You say you're going to change.
Yeah!
But you don't have any time.
No!Down in my beast heart,
I build an Empire,
Whenever I'm blinded,
Open my wild eye.Down in my beast heart,
I build an Empire,
Whenever I'm blinded,
Open my wild eye.So tell it to the plain clothes officer behind us.
What are you? A master of disguise and keeping silent?
Drop another depth charge, coiling like a viper.
Eyes so close together, make it harder for the sniper.I shoot a starving porno for the yuppies in a circle,
Second death upon you swimming backwards like a turtle.
Man, I really trusted you I though you were civilian,
I could shove a magnet in your mouth and make a million.So did you pack your bag or did somebody pack it for you?
Take me to the sad, sad party that you're bound to.
Whether you're a have not or a have I've got a question:
Are you living dead or is this some kind of possesion?You say you're going to change.
Yeah!
But you don't have any time.
No!Down in my beast heart,
I build an Empire,
Whenever I'm blinded,
Open my wild eye.Down in my beast heart,
I build an Empire,
Whenever I'm blinded,
Open my wild eye.I hear the death rattle and I...Time wasting!

Time wasting!And I know, and I know, and I know and I know.
Tonight we'll know the reason why.
Time wasting!Oh!You say you're going to change.
Yeah!
But you don't have any time.
No!You say you're going to change.
Yeah!
But you don't have any time.
No!Beast heart,
Empire,
Blinded,
Wild eye.Down in my beast heart,
I build an Empire,
Whenever I'm blinded,
Open my wild eye.Down in my beast heart,
I build an Empire,
Whenever I'm blinded.
