

Father

Hillsong United

To bring this world to life
To heal this heart of mine

Your grace enough, your grace enoughTo mend this world in need
To break the chains in me

Your grace enough, now this means loveThe weight of all our sin upon His shoulders
We should all be called Your sons and daughtersFather, let heaven and earth collide

In the endless wonder of Your love upon the cross
We will follow and offer this life forever
To see Your love unfoldAdopted as Your own
Alive to make You known

Now this means love, this means loveThe weight of all our sin upon His shoulders
We should all be called Your sons and daughtersFather, let heaven and earth collide

In the endless wonder of Your love upon the cross
We will follow and offer this life forever
To see Your love unfoldFor the lost and for the broken
For the slave and for the orphan

For everyone to realize Your loveFrom the famous to the faceless
From the beggar to the king
For everyone to realize Your loveYou restore the broken hearted
You bring freedom to the captive

For one and all, forever this means loveAll Your children come together
All Your sons and all Your daughters

Your grace enough, forever this means loveSinging, Father, let heaven and earth collide
In the endless wonder of Your love upon the cross
We will follow and offer this life forever
To see Your love unfoldYour grace enough, forever this means love
You gave it all for one and all
Your grace enough, forever this means love
