One More With You

Chase Coy

Three years ago, I was so sure
But now I'm not sure of anything anymore.
It's like the past is gripping my throat
And I choke
And I'm still hoping I'll find out
It's all a bad joke.
So don't, don't tell me it's over
And don't, don't say that I'll be alright
If I could trade twenty years
For one more with you
Then I would
I'd turn back time
Make the whole world rewind
If I could
If I knew that you'd haunt my dreams
Every time that I sleep
Then I'd lay my head down
And I'd close my eyes for good.
Three years went by
And I thought you and I were a sure thing.
But as it turns out,
I guess I can't count on anything
You'd change your mind
And nothing is quite what it seems
You said forever
But I guess you don't know what that means
So don't, don't tell me it's over
And don't, don't tell me I'll be alright
If I could trade twenty years
For one more with you
Then I would
I'd turn back time
Make the whole world rewind
If I could
If I knew that you'd haunt my dreams
Every time that I sleep
Then I'd lay my head down
And I'd close my eyes for good.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/