Love Is Overdue

Dean Fraser

Listen darlingNow who's gonna hold and squeeze me tight
Now that she's gone out of my life
Who's gonna make me feel the way she used to do, yeah
Now that my love is overdue
Now that my love is overdueI'm all alone in the wilderness
Searching to find some peace and rest
Although she wasn't the best girl
But she brought happiness into my world
And now i'm a prisoner of loneliness
Said i'm a prisoner of loneliness[BRIDGE]
(That's what I am)Now whose voice is gonna say goodnight
Now that she's gone out of my sight
Who's gonna tell me lies and let me think they're true, yeah
Now that my love is overdue
Now that my love is overdueCan you see right now
And i dont know just what to do, yeah
Can you please stop from making me blue
(ad lib to fade)
