

You Dropped Your Dime

Joe

Wassup, playboy
Now man, you can't keep callin' me with this shit, man
Now she told you what she wanted
All you had to do was give it to her
I'm gonna give you some free game, listen All she wanted was a little time, you said, "Never"
Begged that you would stay home, you said, "Never"
Maybe we can wine and dine before we bump and grind
You said, "Never", she said, you said, "Never" Can we go to the park and swing, you said, "Never"
How about to the bar for a drink, you said, "Never"
Let's take a trip together, where ever
But she said, you said, "Never" You dropped your dime so I picked it up
'Cause she was, oh
Finders, keepers, losers, weepers
What, what, what, what You dropped your dime so I picked it up
'Cause she was, oh
Finders, keepers, losers, weepers
What, what, what, what You see here with me, she can have whatever
Shopping sprees at Gucci, whatever
Taking trips to Miami, it's on me
I say, "Whatever", ask her I say, "Whatever" Can we play in sand while holding hands, whatever
Go to the room and boom boom, whatever
Here with me she'll never hear never
It's always whatever, ask her I say, "Whatever" You dropped your dime so I picked it up
'Cause she was, oh
Finders, keepers, losers, weepers
What, what, what, what You dropped your dime so I picked it up
'Cause she was, oh
Finders, keepers, losers, weepers
What, what, what, what If I were you, I woulda made her mine forever
With women dawg, you can't take forever
You took too long, I came along
And now she's gonna be mine forever, yes I said, forever I'ma cop a ring and wife her forever
I'ma make it so she's happy forever
With me dawg, she'll never hear never
It's always whatever, that's why we're forever You dropped your dime so I picked it up
'Cause she was, oh
Finders, keepers, losers, weepers
What, what, what, what You dropped your dime so I picked it up
'Cause she was, oh

Finders, keepers, losers, weepers
What, what, what, what You dropped your dime so I picked it up
'Cause she was, oh
Finders, keepers, losers, weepers
What, what, what, what You dropped your dime so I picked it up
'Cause she was, oh
Finders, keepers, losers, weepers
What, what, what, what
