

She Ain't You

Bei Maejor

no girl she aint you no So i miss you its bei maejor and jukebox boyi think back on when we used to be so happy
me and you together
my new girl tryna replace that but she can never be what you were to me i know you like watever told me like wateverso now im hoping maybe one day you'll let your heart open if you don't then you leave me heart broken all alone singin this song singin singin this song so now im like noo theres no way that any other girl could do the things you do if only i had known id never let you go away and do them things to you but now my babys gone gone away
and i got another girl whose cool but no she aint you girl you now she aint true girlso um i think back bout how we used to say that we were gonna stay always together any kinda weather any bird any plane superman don't mean a thing no no i think back to how we used to be all on the phone talkin' till three ah four ah five in the mornin' without being bored and talkin' about nothing think back many years when i used to sneak in ya crib like this shh be quiet or your daddy hear us and hes gonna kill us i don't wanna dieso now im hoping
now im like noo
theres no way that any other girl could do the things you do
but now my babys grown

and now i got another girl whose cool
you now she aint true girlso now im callin' the radio hopin that my call gets through cause i wanna play this song and i wanna dedicate it to you im on the phone with the radio hopin that this call gets through through cause i want you to hear this song and i wanna dedicate it to youso now im like noo
you now she aint true girlhey.. i think back on when we used to every ..i think back on when we used to.. uh i think back every every think back every think back every err ehh girl gone away and now i know think back every no she aint you girl you know she aint you girldid you hear that part at the end where i was like yooou i hit that note, young boyz
